

Global Citizenry Education for Young People

Global Citizen, LLC's interactive Global Citizenry Education Program offers essential life skills training to young people during the developmental period in which they are open to new ideas, forming their identities, and developing the capacity for critical thinking.

5. In the Action stage, participants:

- Commit to act with integrity and uphold human rights
- Advance equity and environmental justice for a better world

1. In the Awareness stage, participants:

- Define global citizenry
- Explore and express their identities and values
- Investigate their family histories and discuss their unique and shared cultural heritage
- Develop a greater awareness of their diverse traits, values, identities, and world view in relationship with others

4. In the Skills stage, participants:

- Leverage people's diverse strengths in teamwork and decision-making
- Explain and demonstrate peaceful conflict resolution
- Develop and strengthen intercultural competence for more effective interactions, communication, and relationships with people from different cultures and countries

Global Citizenry Education Framework forms the foundation of the curriculum.

2. In the Understanding stage, participants:

- Develop a critical consciousness of the threads that connect us across the globe, and how dynamics of privilege and power impact our relationships on an individual and country level
- Recognize and resist stereotypes
- Explain what it means to be an ally and how to act in solidarity with people from socially disadvantaged groups
- Distinguish between equity and equality
- Describe and analyze human rights, the meaning of environmental justice, and the many benefits of diversity

3. In the Attitude stage, participants:

- Clarify and affirm their values
- Evaluate their beliefs and actions with others
- Demonstrate a deep appreciation for diversity
- Cultivate empathy and express sensitivity for all people and creatures

In each stage, participants address the following core themes:

- Identity
- Diversity
- Interconnectedness
- Equity
- Human Rights
- Environmental Justice
